Learning from the Disaster in Japan

A Special Program for Manufacturers, Suppliers,
Retailers, Wholesalers & Distributors

Thursday, May 19, 2011

2.0 CPE Credits for Accountants and 2.0 hours of CLE Credits for NY/NJ Attorneys

Businesses watching or confronting the crisis in Japan are making a shocking discovery: They are not nearly as prepared to handle disruptions resulting from a domestic or global disaster as they ought to be.

Join our panelists as they explore the problems and deficiencies emerging for businesses impacted by the disaster, including the provisions companies should take to keep their businesses solvent and functioning in the wake of an unexpected event. Topics to be addressed include:

- The supply chain flaws resulting from the disaster in Japan.
- How companies impacted by the Japanese disaster or similar events can quantify their direct and contingent business interruption losses with regard to operations, suppliers and customers.
- The insurance solutions designed to respond and provide remuneration when there is a break in the supply chain.
- The types of insurance claims that may arise from a natural disaster and the steps companies can take to ensure that claims are paid quickly and in full.
- Common misconceptions companies have about their commercial insurance policies and how these misconceptions can result in a denial of claims at the time of financial loss.
- How to properly and comprehensively prepare a statement of claim to receive timely and complete insurance payments.
- How to financially protect your company and its assets from a catastrophic event.
